Vikram Goud, Youth Cong Leader shot at, may have planned attack: Cops

Hydrabad/August 01
Vikram Goud, the son of a former Andhra Pradesh minister in hospital after being shot last week in Hyderabad, staged the shootout, suspect police officers investigating the case. Vikram Goud is a youth Congress leader and his father Mahesh Goud was a minister in the government of YS Jagan Mohan Reddy. Vikram was shot at around 3:30 am on Friday at his home in the upscale Banjara Hills. He was shot three times according to the police. He is at the Apollo hospital, where his father and his wife Sheela visited him on his birthday today. The police say four people have been arrested, including two from Karnataka. They have alleged that they were hired by Vikram to fire at him. Vikram was believed to be deep in debt and the police suspect he came up with the plan to throw off his debtors. Another theory is that he was some pulp and was worried that crime officials would call him in for questioning in a drug case. The police had said on Friday that Vikram Goud and his wife were getting ready to visit a place of worship and he was waiting on the ground floor when the attack took place. Suddenly, his wife heard gunshots and found him lying on the floor. said A Venkateswar Rao, a senior police officer.

Geelani's Lawyer expelled by Jammu Bar Association

Jammu/August 01
The Bar Association of Jammu (BAJ) on Tuesday expelled lawyer Vinod Singh Bhat, who is associated with the defence of Hizbul Mujahideen leader Mir Hamza Ali Shah Geelani, after he was arrested by the NIA in a terror funding case. "As soon as we came to know about his (Bhat) arrest, we verified our records and immediately decided to expel him without any notice from the primary membership of the association," BAJ president BS Salathia told reporters here. "Our is a nationalist association and we will not tolerate the presence of any 'anti-national' element, whether associated with Hurriyat or any other group," he said. Widening its probe in the terror funding case, the National Investigation Agency (NIA) had on July 30 searched the office and residence of Bhat at his alleged role in routing funds to separatists from their Pakistan-based handlers. Bhat, chairman of Jammu and Kashmir Social Peace Forum (JKSPF) an organisation of Telukew-Haramayya headed by Geelani, was arrested following which several of his public speeches during last year's unrest in the Valley went viral on social media, wherein he was heard shouting 'freedom-freedom' and 'anti-India' slogans. Salathia said Bhat had been a member of the Bar Association of Jammu in 2012 on the recommendation of two senior advocates. He said even members of the association belonging to his community took a strong exception to his activities and recommended his expulsion. "The decision to expel him was unanimous and aimed at sending a clear message that we will not tolerate any anti-national activities," he said. The BAJ chief also advised senior lawyers to verify the credentials of those seeking membership of the association before recommending their cases and asserted that a "conspiracy
